

Informationen zu Programm und Lehrgang:

www.mpa.uni-klu.ac.at

Michael Getzner (0676/4129222) und Michael Jungmeier (0676/6029608)

Programm

Das "International Colloquium of Protected Areas", findet am 15. Juni im Hörsaal 10 (Mensagebäude) der Universität Klagenfurt statt. Im Anschluss findet die erste Verleihung des Master-of-Science-Grades von Absolvent/inn/en unseres Universitätslehrgangs "Management of Protected Areas" statt.

Am Donnerstag, 14.6.07, Abschlussevent des Lehrgangs, um 19.00 Uhr, im Napoleonstadl in Klagenfurt.

... im Detail:

International Colloquium on Protected Areas

15 June 2007, 9.00 - 16.30, Klagenfurt University, Hörsaal 10

9.00 Welcome - Michael JUNGMEIER, Michael GETZNER

9.15 - 10.45 Biodiversity Conservation and Visitor Management

Chair: Michael JUNGMEIER

Regine HRADETZKY (Austria): Managing small cultural landscape areas - a new approach for integrative conservation of biodiversity

Sunita CHAUDARY (Nepal): The Ganges River Dolphins in Koshi River (Nepal) - status and threats

Martin HARTMANN (Austria): A Professional Ranger Service for Austrian National Parks - steps towards an integral job description

Meldra LANGENFELDE (Latvia): Accessibility in protected areas - the example of Gauja National Park (Latvia)

Lisbeth ZECHNER (Austria): Visitor management and monitoring - the case study of Gesaeuse National Park (Austria)

10.45 - 11.00 Coffee Break

11.00 - 12.30 Legal Frameworks and Management Effectiveness

Chair: Michael GETZNER

Joanna BORG (Malta): An Analysis of the Implementation of Article 6(3) and (4) of the Habitats Directive (Directive 92/43/EEC) in Malta

Christine FEHR (Switzerland): New parks in Switzerland - comment from the NGO point of view

Renate VISOTSCHNIG-BRUCKSCHWAIGER (Austria): Management Effectiveness during the Planning Phase of Marine Protected Areas

Ganga NAKARMI (Nepal): Evaluation of management effectiveness - a case study from Chitwan National Park (Nepal)

Bernd PFLEGER (Austria): Evaluation of the management effectiveness of Central European protected areas. A critical revision of the "Parks in Peril" Site Consolidation Scorecard

12.30 - 13.30 Lunch

13.30 - 15.00 Finances and Economics

Chair: Michael GETZNER

Barbara MÜLLER (Austria): How to think about sponsorship in your protected area - a rough guide for managers

Laszlo POTOZKY (Romania): Small Grants as Effective Financing Tools for Protected Areas and Biodiversity Conservation in Transition Countries (The case of Romania)

Thomas SCHUH (Austria): The Dürrenstein Wilderness Area as a Model for Bionic Management and Sustainability

Arpine JENDEREDJIAN (Armenia): Potential analysis for new tourist offers - the case study of Sevan National Park (Armenia)

Lila TIMILSINA (Nepal): Contribution of Buffer Zone Management on Livelihood Support. A case study from Chitwan National Park, Nepal

15.00 - 15.15 Coffee Break

15.15 - 16.45 Quality Management and Stakeholder Participation

Chair: Michael JUNGMEIER

Christine KLENOVEC (Austria): USP creation in Nature Parks - a guideline for Austria and Germany

Birgit KOCH (Austria): Quality criterion for Nature Parks - the example of Tyrol

Christian-Remus PAPP (Romania): Feasibility check of the designation of a Transboundary Protected Area between Romania and Hungary (the example of Carei Plain and Batorliget)

Susanne GLATZ (Austria): Involving resident people in a Park's management - the example "River of no Return" (USA)

17.00 Graduation Ceremony MSc Programme "Management of Protected Areas"

www.mpa.uni-klu.ac.at,

c/o Department of Economics, Klagenfurt University, Universitaetsstrasse 65-67, 9020 Klagenfurt, Austria

Ph. +43 463 2700 4192, Fax +43 463 2700 4191