

MORE

Winter semester 2016/17

Why MORE?

The MORE programme gives refugees who are interested in university education the possibility to get familiar with the Austrian higher education system.

MORE students will be admitted as extra-curricular students. MORE courses are available in every university town in Austria. Universities grant a certain number of places in these courses for MORE students.

The language of instruction is either German or English. At the AAU, MORE students can sign up for specific courses and seminars offered by all four faculties.

What does the MORE programme offer you?

- Enrolment as a non-degree seeking (extra-curricular) student*
- No tuition fees and no ÖH fee
- Attending a selection of 'open' courses at the AAU
- Full access to the AAU's library and its resources
- Possibility to take exams at the end of the semester (if passed successfully, the grades will be listed on your certificate of academic performance).

Who can take part in the MORE programme?

- Asylum seekers in possession of an "Aufenthaltsberechtigungskarte" (residence permit) according to § 51 of the Austrian Asylum Act
- Recognised refugees**
- "Subsidiär Schutzberechtigte" according to § 52 of the Austrian Asylum Act
- "Geduldete" (individuals with a tolerance permit) according to § 46a of the Austrian "Fremdenpolizeigesetz"

Further requirements

- As the language of instruction is either German or English, you need to have good knowledge of English and/or German (level B1 in accordance with the CEFR, Common European Framework of Reference for Languages).
- You would like to continue university studies you have started in your home country or would like to enrol at an Austrian university.
