Save the Date and Call for Papers for
The Second Conference on Zero/Minimal Intelligence
Agents
October 21-23, 2021

Submissions are invited to the Second Conference on Zero/Minimal Intelligence (ZI/MI) Agents sponsored by Yale School of Management, University of Klagenfurt and Max Planck Institute for Human Development. The conference will run on New York Time USA from October 21 8:30am-3:30pm, October 22 8:30am-3:30pm and October 23, 8:30am-5:00pm. Paper Submission deadline is June 30, 2021 (Click here for instructions on how to submit to ZIMI2).

As much as possible, please send your completed papers (existing or in-progress). Also welcome are extended abstracts of approximately 1,000 words describing the idea, findings/hypothesis, and method. Please indicate your subfield in the subject line. All submissions should be received by June 30, 2021. Organizers will get back to you by August 15, 2021. If you are interested in organizing a session, please send an email to ZI.session.proposals@gmail.com.

Zero-Intelligence (ZI) and Minimal-Intelligence (MI) agents have provided valuable insights into how rules of engagement and institutional structures affect outcomes. This conference is for sharing insights, findings, theories, applications, and tools regarding ZI and MI agents in the following areas and beyond:

- Economics, Finance, and Business
- Psychology, Sociology, Politics and Humanities
- Computer Science, AI, and Machine Learning
- Engineering, Automation, Telecommunications, and Information Systems and Control
- Energy, Fuel, and Ecological Sciences
- Mathematics, Statistical Physics, and Complexity
- ZI/MI Software

Please write to us at ZIconference@yale.edu regarding any questions about attending, presenting your work, or participating in some other manner. Visit last
