

Admission Information

Master's Degree Programme in English and American Studies (University of Klagenfurt) Degree programme code UL 066 812

Preface

In accordance with § 64 (3) of the Universities Act, the admission to a Master's programme is contingent upon the successful completion of a relevant Bachelor's programme, or University of Applied Sciences Bachelor's programme, or other equivalent programme at a recognised domestic or foreign post-secondary educational institution. Where equivalence has been established in principle and only certain supplementary qualifications are required for full equivalence, the Rectorate shall be entitled to tie the determination of equivalence to examinations to be taken during the respective Master's programme.

Definition of "relevant Bachelor's programme"

The following Bachelor's degree programmes are considered to be relevant in any case: The Bachelor's degree programme in English and American Studies at the University of Klagenfurt pursuant to the curricula applicable as of 1 October 2012, as well as the Bachelor's degree programme in English and American Studies at the Universities of Graz, Innsbruck, Salzburg and Vienna. Admission to this Master's degree programme can also be granted upon completion of another relevant Diploma or Bachelor's degree programme or Bachelor's degree programme offered by a University of Applied Sciences.

Decisions on whether another Diploma or Bachelor's degree programme or Bachelor's degree programme at a University of Applied Sciences shall be deemed relevant are made on a case-by-case basis.

Frequent transfers

Graduates from the following Bachelor's programmes or University of Applied Sciences Bachelor's programmes frequently transfer to the Master's degree programme:
