

UNIV. PROF. URSULA
DOLESCHAL

HOST: DR. KARIN MARTIN

November
18th, 6PM
(CET)

Multilingualism Matters

Thriving Thursdays

Code Switching as a Bilingual Practice

Education and Career of Expert

1983-1984: Study stay at Lomonosov University, Moscow

1997-1998: Research stay in Bratislava, Novi Sad, Lublin, Prague, Moscow, Ljubljana

2000: Habilitation in Slavic linguistics, thesis "Die Bedingungen der Unflektierbarkeit in den slawischen Sprachen" (The conditions of uninflectedness in the Slavic languages)

1989-1990: Lecturer for the German Language at Istituto Universitario Orientale, Naples

Since July 1st 2003: Full professor of Slavic linguistics at the Slavic department, University of Klagenfurt (Alpen-Adria-Universität Klagenfurt)

From 2009-2013: President of the Austrian association of Slavists

Since June 29th 2004: Director of the writing center at the University of Klagenfurt

Since December 2018: Austrian representative in the International Committee of Slavists.

Main areas of research

Multilingualism, language and gender, academic writing, morphology of Slavic languages.

Register here

