

Invitation to the guest lecture series The European Union in times of crisis

On Saturday, October 29th 2022, the Institute of Public Management of the University of Klagenfurt invites to a guest lecture series featuring the theme “The European Union in times of crisis”.

The guest lecture series is an integral part of the lecture “The European Union – history, functioning & current challenges” facilitated by Rene Reiterer, auditor at the European Court of Auditors in Luxembourg and external lecturer at the University of Klagenfurt. The aim of this format is to provide students and interested external participants with first-hand insights into the functioning of the European Union and to cast a critical eye over the EU’s response measures to current health and safety crises.
