Information

Parking: The parking spaces at the University of Klagenfurt can be used free of charge on the day of the graduation ceremony.

Champagne bar: Toast your graduation with family and friends at the end of the academic graduation ceremony. You will find a voucher for two glasses of sparkling wine in the order of celebration placed on your seat. It can be redeemed directly after the ceremony at the champagne bar situated in the foyer between Lecture Hall A and Lecture Hall B (level 0).

Photos: Taking private photographs during the ceremony can diminish the sense of occasion and is not permitted. Our photographer Mr. Laimböck and his team will be taking photographs of each graduate as they receive their degree certificate. Our photographer is also at your disposal after the ceremony.

Information on how to order your photos will be given to you on the day of your celebration by the team of photographers. It is possible to have the photos printed out on the spot or to view and order them via the website. <http://www.laimboeck.net/reportagen>

Photography is permitted from the audience seating area.

Accessibility: Access for the disabled is possible via ramps, the entrances are at ground level.

If guests with special needs are expected to attend (e.g. wheelchair access), we will be very happy to reserve a seat in the front row for you and one accompanying person. We kindly ask you to inform us by e-mail at least 3 days before the ceremony.

Covid-19: We will inform you promptly in the event that new measures are introduced.

Environmental management: Please protect the environment and refrain from using plastic confetti.
